

Company's Annual Celebration of Gargee'an

Part of Company's Celebration of Gargee'an

Part of Company's Celebration of Gargee'an

In the context of celebrating Ramadan customs and traditions and in furtherance of the sense of affection and love among Kuwaiti society members during the holy month of Ramadan, the Company, as it does every year and as part of its social responsibility, has distributed Gargee'an sweets to the staff of the main office and factories, With the participation of a group of children in popular clothes who echoed the songs usually accompanying these traditional events.